Onedrive Prompts on Library Computers

The Onedrive script will not run properly on Windows 7. All Library computers use Windows 7. When prompted to enter a password for Onedrive on Library computers, 'X' out of all Onedrive prompts before proceeding.

Unofficial Printing

Unofficial printouts or copies made on the Library's printer cost $0.10 each. Unofficial printing or computer use is not allowed if done for personal money-making purposes, such as ads, business cards, outside jobs, etc.

Printing and Saving Documents on Personal Computers Using VMware

When using your own computer to search for and retrieve journal articles when logged on to VMware, save documents to your C drive, to Google Drive, or to a flash drive. This will allow you to print the articles to your personal printer or to save them elsewhere. Google Drive actually allows you to access articles anywhere you have internet access. If you don't use these or similar methods, you will need to email articles to yourself to save or print them.
